DIARY

1949

Dear Diary—
Life begins... at College that is! Why, I wonder, didn't someone tell me the facts of College Life? There is something uncanny about the ability of an upperclass man to spot a new-comer. Every one gives me one look and says "Hey freshman!"

So, I do get into the wrong lines and have to ask my way around!! You have heard about "Ladies in White!" Well they are "Angels in White" to me. They are the girls who make up the Orientation Committee. And they do a swell job, helping the poor freshmen get adjusted and keep happy as they stand in lines ... get to the faculty for their schedule, ... To the registrar ... to the Bursar. I'll dream about those long lines and the million forms to fill out..

WEDNESDAY

Oh Diary!!!
Who said, "All work and no play"?
My head is doing a wonderful imitation of a top - No foolin' its really work - Classes - quizzes - term papers - five hours history - rules to follow and that eternal signing out and in ... wow! But gee, Diary, I hope I make the grade alright.. I must because it's really beginning to make sense. I am getting a dim idea why all the upperclassmen love this lace and why the seniors get all eepy when they talk about their last year.

MONDAY

Ah, Dear Diary -
Comes the brighter side of life.
... the part of college that I love. Here, my friend, is the pay-off. What fun we have at the Sea House and new Seeburg with all it's records, and let me tell you about the class and campus wide dances. They are just heavenly. I think I'm really going to be keen on this life. I

To DR. LEAH DENNIS

FOR MANY YEARS ALABAMA COLLEGE HAS HAD THE BENEFIT OF HER INSPIRING PRESENCE. THOUGH OUTSTANDING IN HER FIELD OF ENGLISH, SHE HAS BEEN MORE THAN A MERE ACADEMIC INSTRUCTOR TO THOSE STUDENTS WHO HAVE COME IN CONTACT WITH HER. SHE IS A LIVING EXAMPLE OF HER PHILOSOPHY: "KNOW SOMETHING ABOUT MANY THINGS, AND A GREAT DEAL ABOUT A FEW THINGS". ADMIRED BY ALL FOR HER RARE INTELLECT AND PERSONALITY, SHE HAS MADE ALABAMA COLLEGE A BETTER PLACE. FOR THESE REASONS, AND MORE, WE DEDICATE THE 1949 MONTAGE TO OUR FRIEND . . . .

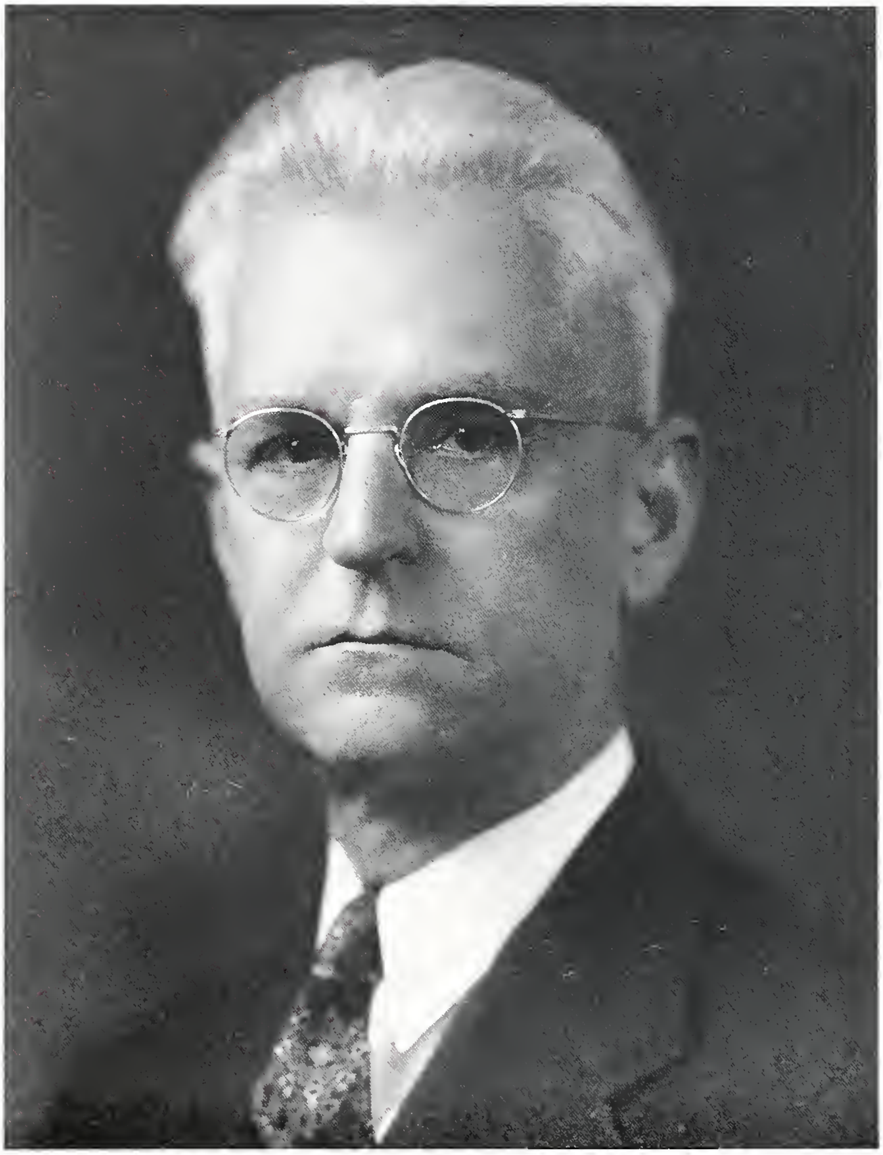
This Edition of our Yearbook is

DEDIC

DR. LEAH DENNIS

ATED . . .

IN MEMORY OF



DR. HARMON

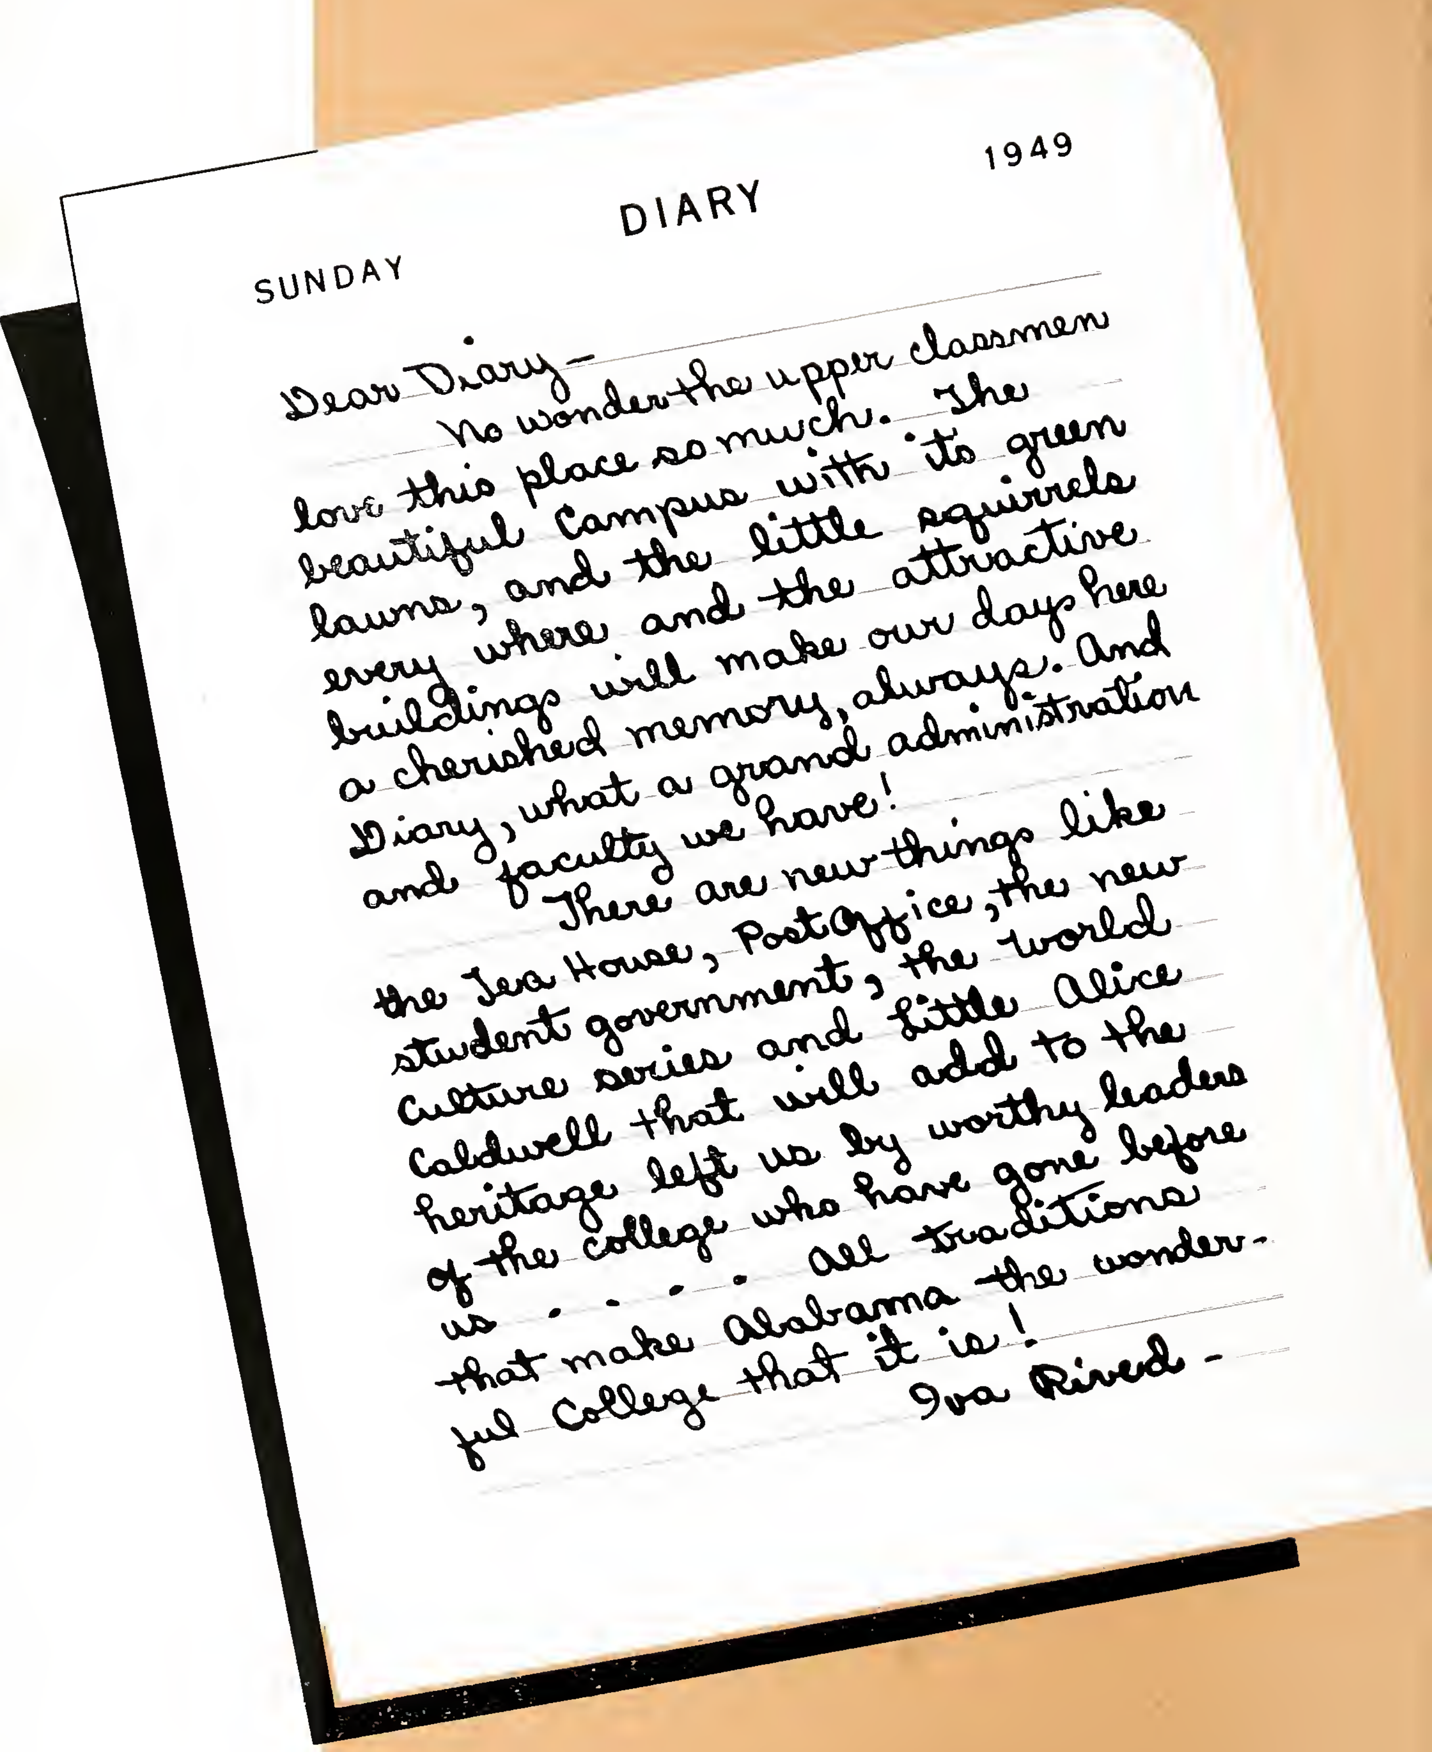
"Say not welcome when I come;
"Say not farewell when I go—"

Because of his poetry which he so liked to read, his "railroad clap", his daily walk from Flowerhill to his office, his "Southern gentlemanly dignity", his wise counsel, his love of all things beautiful, and his many years of faithful service to Alabama College—Dr. Arthur Fort Harmon will continue to live in the hearts of his "daughters".

TWO BELOVED FRIENDS

One whom the students could truly call a friend, Dr. A. W. Vaughan was loved for his never failing sense of humor, his genuine belief in and understanding of youth, his cheerfulness and enthusiasm and his very workable philosophy of life. Dr. Vaughan loved Alabama College . . and Alabama College loved him.

DR. VAUGHAN



SUNDAY DIARY 1949

Dear Diary—

No wonder the upper classmen love this place so much. The beautiful Campus with its green lawns, and the little squirrels every where and the attractive buildings will make our days here a cherished memory, always. And Diary, what a grand administration and faculty we have!

There are new things like the Tea House, Post Office, the new student government, the world culture series and Little Alice Caldwell that will add to the heritage left us by worthy leaders of the college who have gone before us . . . . All traditions that make Alabama the wonderful College that it is!

Besides being Governor of the State of Alabama, Governor James E. Folsom is also President of our Board of Trustees. Since coming into office, the Governor has displayed a wide interest in education at Alabama College.

GOVERNOR JAMES E. FOLSOM

THE BOARD of TRUSTEES

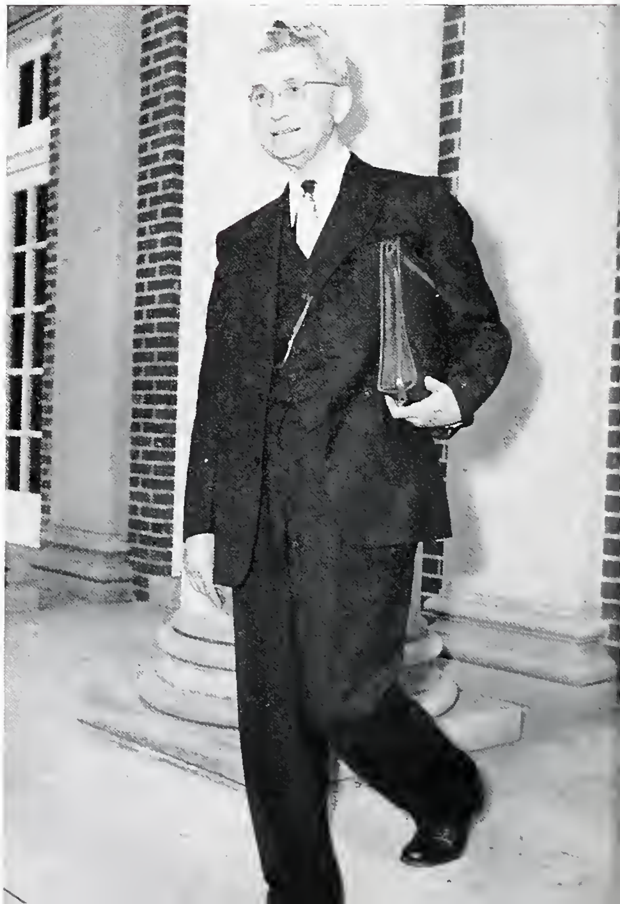
Our distinguished Board of Trustees: Mrs. A. Y. Malone, Dothan; Nelson Fuller, Centerville; James C. Lee, Birmingham; Mrs. Edwina D. Mitchell, Montgomery; Samuel M. Johnston, Mobile; Bruce Beveridge, Selma; M. L. Robertson, Cullman; Mrs. James Fitts Hill, Montgomery; Mrs. A. G. Finlay, Guntersville; Horace T. Armstrong, Scottsboro; Hugh W. Cardon, Centre.

DR. JOHN TYLER CALDWELL

The PRESIDENT

Synonymous with the name John Tyler Caldwell are the words progress, personality, and competency. Dr. Caldwell has guided Alabama College successfully into a new era of development. Eager for the students to become world-minded and have a better understanding of our foreign neighbors, Dr. Caldwell initiated this year the World Culture Series Program, the only program of its kind in any college in the United States.

DEAN T. H. NAPIER



DEAN NAPIER

Dean Napier's courteousness and friendliness, his wisdom and humor, his patience and understanding have come to be treasured by Alabama College students. With "I'll tell the Dean about my problem and then it'll be okay"—A. C. girls have shown their faith in Dean Napier throughout his many years of splendid service.

MR. FOWLER

Mr. Fowler, during his two years of service to Alabama College has personified accuracy and efficiency in the handling of the finances of the school. His cooperativeness and willingness to lend a helping hand to student organizations in budget building and financial problems plus his cheerful interest in all college activities have made him an invaluable asset to Alabama College.

MR. RAYMOND D. FOWLER

MR. LOWELL S. HAMILTON

L. S. HAMILTON

Although new on our campus, Mr. Hamilton has already proven his ability in "putting A. C. in the news." His co-operative spirit and enthusiasm have meant much in insuring more and better publicity for Alabama College.

DIARY

FRIDAY

Diary-
Activities are really abundant
here - There's never a dull moment!
First there is the student Government,
a new three-branch system this year. Then there is the Y.W.C.A.,
the Recreation Association etc.,
the College Theatre, Artist and Lecture Series, The Alabamian and Montage to work on ... Crook week in the spring, when the Seniors put the Juniors through
... and best of all, the highlight of the year ... College Night!
You know Diary, its really wonderful, the way a freshman is welcomed into these activities.
With all this going on, we new girls don't have time to get homesick. We hardly have time to write the family-

GLADYS RANKIN	Vice-President
MARTHA LOU THOMPSON	Secretary
SARA NELL CARR	Social Chairman

Under the new Student Government constitution which went into effect this year, the Executive Council serves as a co-ordinating body for all campus activities. Besides the Executive Council officers, the presidents of the major organizations, editors of the student publications, and house presidents make up this group.

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

During the year the Council has functioned excellently in Orientation, in its duties of recommending necessary legislation to the Senate, and coordinating College Night and other campus-wide activities.

Congratulations to this group on its very successful first year of service to the college community.

The SENATE

The Student Senate functioned for the first time as a purely legislative branch of Student Government. The Senate, working hand in hand with the Executive Council and the Advisory Board, made the regulations which were passed on by the student body.

The Senate has fulfilled its job quite successfully, and the student body was happy indeed over the new riding regulations. Keep up the good work, Senate!

OFFICERS

HOWARD NELL SMITH	Chief Justice
DOROTHY D. WESLEY	Associate Justice
ANNETTE BARNES	Secretary

The Student Court came into existence for the first time this year as the judicial branch of the new Student Government. The Court encouraged the Honor System on the campus, tried cases dealing with major violations of rules, and passed on the constitutionality of rules passed by the Senate. The Court has done a splendid job in its first year, and we have high hopes for its continued success.

The Court is composed of seven class representatives, an associate justice, and a chief justice.

SOCIAL COMMITTEE

SARA NELL CARR . . . . Chairman

The Social Committee, made up of the campus chairman and a chairman from each dormitory, made its debut as an organization this year. It sponsored the Freshman Reception and the monthly semi-formal dinners, and acted as a coordinating body for all the social functions on the campus this year.

The Y. W. C. A.

The Y. W. C. A. fosters Christian living on the campus. The Y. W. C. A. organized four commissions: Personal and Campus Affairs, World Relatedness, Social Responsibility and Christian Heritage, which were active throughout the year.

The "Y" sponsored the Sis-Major program, vesper services, evening watch in the dormitories, a party for the foreign students, the World Student Service Fund drive, and in connection with the Religious Council, Religious Emphasis Week.

The first big task of the Montage Staff this year was sponsoring Elite Night. This, they did, and it was one of the most successful events of the year.

It's the job of the Montage Staff to give a true and accurate representation of our college life! Sure, this is very easy to say.

MONTAGE

. . . . . And it's done with a vengeance, as many unfortunates, whose pictures were snapped while eyes squinted and mouths gaped, will testify. Through a maze of flashing bulbs, frantic searches for descriptive information, numerous layout problems, the difficulty of having no special photographer, and days of writing, the 1949 Montage staggered to press as its staff members staggered to the nearest rest haven. True and accurate representation of our collge life? We hope it is.

The ALABAMIAN

If Iva happens to be glancing over 'Reynolds way' some morning in the wee hours and sees several harrassed, worn out, and speely gals emerging, she'll know that the Alabamian has just been "put to bed."

The efforts of the staff, despite the dark-circled eyes and sleepless nights, have certainly paid off this year. The A. C. bi-monthly has been one of the best yet; including generous portions of hot-news coverage; personality sketches; student opinions polls; feature stories and sincere and timely editorials.

An extra-special service to the campus, was the political program sponsored by the Alabamian before the November elections and featuring representatives from the four major political parties, in order to acquaint the campus with the campaign issues.

Crook WEEK

All was solemnity and dignity in Palmer Hall on Wednesday, May 5, as the Most Honorable Seniors clad in the appropriate attire of sacred Seniors robes announced the fate of the lowly Juniors "ghosts" to be known as Jerbcas—for the following week—. There was complete silence except for the occasionally ringing of alarm clocks carefully concealed from the Seniors' watchful eyes as the sentences were pronounced.

Following the meeting the quickest transformation in dress in history occurred on the campus of A. C. On Monday afternoon Jerboas bloomed forth in the dress of the day for Jerboas, which included skirts with various colored strips, blouses with various colored polka dots, high heeled shoes and socks, a scissor and potato necklace, blacked out teeth, and a bathing cap decorated with lipstick painted ears.

In the two and a half days that followed, Jerboas were kept busy providing entertainment and "small" services for the Most Honorable Seniors. The highlight of Crook Week was the Jerboas College Night between the Putrid Pinks and Regurgitating Reds.

On Friday at 1:10 P. M. the Jerboas Kohen and Rowe found the Sacred Stick and at 12:00 midnight came Crook Court—and Senior privileges.

THEATRE

The College Theatre had an anniversary this year! Its 50th play was presented and Dr. Trumbauer concluded his 20th year as its director. Its members had a backstage party after "The Inspector General" to celebrate.

The College Theatre has brought to the college community splendid dramatic productions, and offered to students the opportunity of participating in the phase of dramatic work they are most interested in.

The Theatre Council, made up of students who have been active in dramatic work, acts as an advisory board to the director.

Honest, this is gonna be scenery!

ARTIST AND LECTURE SERIES

The Artist and Lecture Series Committee has brought to the campus this year particularly outstanding personages: Raymond Swing, noted lecturer; Martha Graham, world-famous dancer; Blanche Yurka, famous actress; and the Barter Theatre Players, who presented Shaw's "Arms and the Man."

We were fortunate in having Dr. Dumas Malone, the noted authority on Thomas Jefferson, to present this year's Dancy Lecture Series.

Hi Diary-

What do you know.... Our dormitory won the volley ball Tournament and we are really working for another pennant or Two. There is no limit to what you can do with good team work.

Our whole Recreational Program just clicks that way. We have such grand leaders. Bobby Rowe is president, Norma Bruce, Vice-president, Randall Carr, secretary and Irene Stanford, treasurer. With sports between dorms, individual tournaments, parties at the Field house, step singing in Main and week-ends at the Field House, our program in recreation has been extra special this year. Gee Diary, home was never like this!!!

Alabama College is very proud of its recreational activities and athletic events which are offered to the students and faculty by the Recreation Association in collaboration with the Department of Health, Physical Education and Recreation. A wide variety of intramural sports, both individual and dual, were held in which students and faculty participated.

The revival of the Modern Dance Group after a three years' absence created a great deal of interest. The group, under the capable sponsorship of Miss Elizabeth Hetherington,

Norma and Peacock Play Hockey

presented several pragroms, both on and aff the campus.

Intra-mural taurnaments with enthusiastic dormitary competition were scheduled and provided much activity throughout the year. These included valley ball, basketball, table tennis, badminton, and tennis.

The swimmers of A.C. taak the highlight at the Swimming Porty. The students displayed skill, endurance, and form in the diving exhibition and swimming races.

Keep Your Eye on The Birdie

The feminine Robin Hoods got their chance ot the Archery Field Day. The entire athletic field was turned into a Sherwood Forest os the archers pragressed. Alabama College archers also participated in the Nationol Telegraphic Tournament.

1949

Well Diary,

I'm really beginning to find out what being a freshman at Alabama College means. For awhile it was nothing but endless lines, prolonged assemblies and frequent convocation. But now I feel I'm really getting down to business, with English Term papers, five hour history, dictation tests and a P. E. course that wont wait. Even tho I'm beginning to feel at home as a frosh, I couldn't help noticing how much fun the sophs were having on their Soph. week-end. Gosh, it must be wonderful to be a Sophomore and know so much! Don't look forward to being a Junior tho. I hear they have a pretty rough time on Crook Week. But I guess my ideal is Seniordom. Wonder if I will ever look half so wise and dignified in my cap and gown- Guess I'll just have to wait- and see.

To the Seniors are entrusted the caps and gowns, symbolic of knowledge; the Crook, symbolic of Senior privileges; the Senior Class Ring and Pin, symbolic of Senior responsibilities, and Mrs. Duncan, symbolic of perfect understanding. And the Seniors get to live in Tut!

The Class of 1949 has been "first" in a great many things this year. This was the first Senior class to use the new Tea Room and dance to that Seeburg, to enjoy ride-alone-with-your-date regulations, to go to the Monday night World Culture series of programs, and to be governed by the new three-branch Student Government.

For four years the Class of 1949 has contributed much to all phases of life at Alabama College, and as its members go out into their separate fields in life, we wish you

Good luck Seniors!!

The JUNIOR Class

OFFICERS

NORMA BRUCE	President
BETTY LEE WRIGHT	Vice-President
JOYCE FLOYD	Secretary
KAY BUTTRAM	Treasurer

"Sroinuj," spelled backwards means Juniors, but certainly there is nothing backwards about this class of enthusiasts. Just name it and this bunch is for it—if they don't name it first! To name only a few trusty deeds, they helped with Orientation, had a successful Junior Week-end, (hayride, prom, etc.), wrote songs, ("All We Want for Christmas is the 'Dad-Gum' Crook!"), participated in plays, sports, and oh, yes—Crook Week. After the afore mentioned deed, the Juniors turned their thoughts to "Sroines"—which, spelled backwards means Seniors.

BETTY HOUSTON	Vice-President
JEANINE CANNON	Secretary
ALPHA YOUNG LEWIS	Treasurer

The Class of 1951 stepped over the threshold of their freshman year with one primary thought in mind: "We're not Freshmen anymore!" Having passed this crucial stage in a college girl's career, they began the year with a bang to prove that theirs was a class full of vim, vigor and vitality. These spry lassies participated in such activities throughout the year as College Theatre productions, Student Government, and last, but not least, College Night! They were also "alpha and omega" as far as social life was concerned—for this class sponsored both the first and last formal dance of the school year. Great things are expected of these Sophs, for they've really got what it takes to make a bang-up Junior Class in 1950!

The FRESHMAN Class

The dappled shade of the giant oaks and the whirling spray of the lawn sprinklers were a refreshing sight on a brilliant, sunny Sunday in the fall to the myriad of Freshmen who flocked to the campus by automobile, bus, train, and taxi. Of course the Orientation Committee took them immediately in hand and so much activity followed in the next two weeks that it is a wonder that the Sis-Major, Sis-Minor Party was so well remembered. The party was a very successful Platter Party. Then in October the Freshmen began their own entertaining program with a Halloween Party for upperclassmen.

In February College Night caught them up and many participated actively in its production, counting members in the Cabinets, on committees, and as leg men.

To climax the activities of the season, the Freshman Dance was held in the New Dining Room with Jimmie Simpson and his orchestra furnishing the music, the theme being "Sophisticated Lady." And now with final exams over the class is taking a well- earned vacation, just waiting to be SOPHOMORES!

WEDNESDAY DIARY 1949

Oh, Diary—

I must go on a diet, brush my hair every night and watch my posture. No.. I'm not pinned or trying out for a Powers Model position.... It's just the results of our Annual Elite Night. You know, that is when the beauties and the Elite are selected from the student Body. Diary, the height of my ambition is to be a "Who's Who." Gosh, any one can make an "A", that is if she tries hard enough.. but think what it means to a girl to be a "beauty!" I don't know how the judges ever made their selection. All the girls looked so pretty in their formals— We were real "Southern Beauties." We were proud of them... Could it be that I'll ever be one of the Elite? Something else to add to my prayers!!

Iva—

On October 16, the 1949 MONTAGE sponsored Elite Night. There was really "Beauty on parade" as the forty contestants from the four classes stepped forth against a background of Oriental screens and descended the velvet-draped steps, to be given the once-over, or maybe the "twice-over" by the judges.

The judges for the occasion were Lily Mae Caldwell, Chas. M. Kelley, and Jimmy Wilson. These lucky people selected from Alabama College's potential Miss Americas fourteen girls—six Beauties and eight Favorites.

ELITE NIGHT

Another feature of Elite Night is the election of the Elite of Alabama College. Seniors who are outstanding in their fields were nominated by petition and on THE NIGHT, after their appearance on the stage, were voted on. Miss Alabama College is also elected at this time.

The winners were announced and were presented with a lei by the Editor of the MONTAGE at an Elite-Night-Hawaiian party in Tut fun room, and thus became the Elite of Alabama College.

THURSDAY

Diary—

Whew - meetings, meetings - meetings .... run from one to another all the time!! Departmental organizations such as Calkins Music Club, Physical Education Club, Sociology club and Dietetics Club .... or Pan-Hellenic such as Alpha Lambda Delta (I'm going to work hard to try and make this one!) National Collegiate Players, Beta Beta Beta, and Lambda Sigma Pi ... or Religious, such as Wesley Foundation, Westminister Fellowship, Newman Club, Canterbury club, B.S.U. and Religious Council, will show you that there's an organization to meet the interest of every student and provide inspirational and educational help to all of us.... .... to say nothing of the social side of Life .. Believe me Diary— A.C. is certainly an "Organized Campus!"

PHYSICAL EDUCATION CLUB

The members of the Physical Education Club started the year off with a Camphouse Party to welcome the new majors and to make plans for the year.

Martha Graham and her dance group were honored by the Club after the Concert in Palmer Auditorium. Outstanding speakers in the field of Health, Physical Education and Recreation were guests for three of the club meetings.

The Majors are organized into four teams for competition and scheduled tournaments in each of the sports in the intramural program. The members also competed on a scholastic rating basis.

PI DELTA EPSILON

Pi Delta Epsilon, the national honorary society in journalism, has been on the campus since 1944, and this year took on a major project. Under the Editorship of Georgia Shackelford, The Tower, the campus literary magazine was re-published for the first time since 1941.

Iva seemed very impressed with the literary offerings of the students which appeared in the Tower. The magazine made quite a hit with everyone, and the members of Pi Delta Epsilon can be justly proud of it.

Pi Kappa Delta, the national honorary forensic society on the campus, has as its purpose the stimulation of progress and interest in intercollegiate oratory, debate, and public speaking. Pi Kappa Delta sponsored the Intra-Mural Discussion and awarded the Pi Kappa Delta trophy to Tutwiler Dormitory, the winner. Pi Kappa Delta sponsored debates with other colleges throughout the year, and its members attended a Discussion Conference at the University of Alabama.

PI TAU CHI

OFFICERS

CHESTINE ROBINSON	President	BETSY STEPHENS	Secretary
NELL CARTER	Vice-President	MARY FRANCES GOLSON	Treasurer

Pi Tau Chi is a national inter-denomination honor society with Alpha Gamma Chapter attached to Wesley Foundation at Alabama College. Pi Tau Chi, in practice, stands for Loyalty, Service, and Leadership.

The Religious Council, composed of the representatives from each religious organization on the campus, seeks to promote cooperation and understanding among the various religious groups. The Council works with the Y. W. C. A. in sponsoring Religious Emphasis Week and inviting speakers to visit the campus. The theme for the year was "A Dynamic Faith For Effective Living."

RETAIL CLUB

OFFICERS

DORIS NELSON	President	RENA FREGO	Treasurer
JULIA CHEAPE	Vice-President	GRACE MILLS	Social Chairman
HELEN HAMILTON	Secretary	CATHRYN DAVIS	Program Chairman

LURLENE LANE . . . . Reporter

The Retail Club exists for the benefit of all retail economics majors. Its purpose is to keep its members well informed of the ever-changing opportunities in this field. The club sponsored the contest to select the ten best dressed girls again this year and the only campus-wide dance.

The Sociology Club was organized in 1928, and this year reorganized its constitution in order to be more effective in arousing interest in the art of helping people. In October the club gave a weiner roast for the freshmen and held their annual banquet in February.

WESLEY FOUNDATION

The purpose of the Wesley Foundation is to unite Methodist students on the campus in such a way as to train capable Christian leaders, and to cooperate with other religious groups on the campus in the attainment of higher standards of Christian living. The Foundation this year, in addition to their regular activities, sponsored "Choosing Professions." This series of programs was received most heartily by the students and achieved campus-wide attention.
